Giants Start Again;

FRED MERKLE GETS ANOTHER HOME RUN

Rube Benton Holds the Quakers Safe Throughout the Game.

Philadelphia, May 31.—Repulsed for a moment by Moran's men in the morning game here yesterday, the Giants rallied again to-day, and are driving for the top with greater force than ever. They defeated the Phillies here this afternoon by a score of 4 to 2, winning their nineteenth victory in twenty games played. They are now only one game and a half behind the league-leading Brooklyn Robins, fortyseven points back in the percentage col-Giants will return to the Polo Grounds in first place, for the Robins play a double-header with the Braves at Eb-

Hard, clean and well bunched hitting told the tale this afternoon. New York bunched four hits, including singles by Rariden, Robertsen and Doyle and a double by George Burns, with Artic Fletcher's sacrifice fly, for three runs. took the Giants a couple of inr ings to get the exact range of Bender. They took one shot at him in the first and Bill McKechnie peppered him for the visitors, and was highly effective. He was hit nine times, but managed to keep the hits of the opposition pretty well scattered. In the fourth and ninth frames, however, the Quaker City bunch broke through his guard for two hits and scored one run in each frame. Burns and Ksuff contributed errors to the excitement of the game, but these had no bearing on the result.

the game, but these had no bearing on the result.

Larry Doyle and Artie Fletcher played good haseball for the Giants. Fletcher made six rattling assists at short, while Doyle was almost as busy at second. Bill McKechnie had a rather er easy time of it at third base, but he made the most of his three chances. Jack Niehoff was the busy little bee at second base. He had no fewer than eight chances to show his skill, and accepted them ail in clever style.

The Phillies got their first run in the fourth frame, after two men were out. Niehoff began the frame with a double, but Stock flied out and Cravath struck out. Whitted singled, accoring Niehoff.

In the ninth the Philies rallied a bit. Cravath singled and went to second on a hit by Whitted. He took third when Kauff fumbled the lick and counted where Fletcher threw out Paskert.

The Score follows:

Yanks Within Game of the League Peak

Connie Mack's Young Club Twice Goes Down to Defeat Before Onslaught of Wild Bill's Men-High and Gilhooley Star at Bat with a Home Run and a Triple.

Early in the battle the Mackmen chased Nick Culiop, scoring three runs in the fourth after the side should have been retired. In this inning, with Oldring in a chase between first and second, Wally Pipp dropped a throw from Danny Boone, which should have retired the side. One man scored and then Meyer followed with a four-base punch to centre, adding two more.

Keating took Cullop's place, and with the count standing 5 to 1 Wyckoff was sent in. With a hit and a pass chalked up, Bush replaced him. Two runs counted on Witt's bad toss, but the Mackmen were leading 5 to 3 in the last of the eighth, and the Yanks were apparently doomed to sit again in front of the soup trough. For Bush had been pitching well.
